

(Intro:)

C Baa, ba ba ba baa, ba ba ba baa, ba ba ba baa,

C Baa, ba ba ba baa, ba ba ba baa, ba ba ba baa,

(Verse 1)

When the C world in which you're Em living, gets a A bit too much to A7 bear

And you Dm need someone to F lean on, when you Dm look there's no-one G there,

You're gonna C find me, F out in the C country F

You're gonna C find me, F out in the C country

Chorus:

Where the C air is F good and the C day is F fine

And a C pretty F girl has her C hand in F mine

And the C silver F stream is the C poor F man's Am wine D7

In the Coun-Dm-try, in the D Country. G

(Verse 2)

When you're C walking in the Em city and you're A feeling rather A7 small

And the Dm people on the F sidewalk, seem to D form a solid G wall

You're gonna C find me, F out in the C country F

You're gonna C find me, F out in the C country

Chorus:

Where the C air is F good and the C day is F fine

And a C pretty F girl has her C hand in F mine

And the C silver F stream is the C poor F man's Am wine D7

In the Coun-Dm-try, in the D Country. G

Bridge:

C Hurry, hurry, hurry, for the Bb time is slipping by G

C You don't need a ticket it Bb belongs to you and I G

Come out and C join me, F out in the C country

Chorus:

Where the C air is F good and the C day is F fine

And a C pretty F girl has her C hand in F mine

And the C silver F stream is the C poor F man's Am wine D7

In the Coun-Dm-try, in the D Country. G

(Outro)

C Baa, ba ba ba baa, ba ba ba baa, ba ba ba baa,

C Baa, ba ba ba baa, ba ba ba baa, ba ba ba baa,

Repeat both lines
